

Approving this proceeding would enable licensees to provide news and other information to the hard of hearing in a timely manner. Teletype machines can be used to enable the hard of hearing to send prescriptions and other information over the telephone lines. This would provide an added capability to use a short wave receiver to receive news and other information over the teletype machines.